Harvard Law School Forum

HARVARD LAW SCHOOL
CAMBRIDGE, MASSACHUSETTS 02138

July 5, 1983

William J. Casey
Office of the Director
The Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, DC 20505

Sir:

It is my pleasure to invite you to address a meeting of the Harvard Law School Forum. The 1983-84 academic year will mark our thirty-sixth year of bringing distinguished individuals in government, the arts, education, law and industry to the Law School campus to engage in an enlightening and wide-ranging exchange of ideas. Our programs are open to the general public as well as to members of the Harvard community.

The Forum is now scheduling speakers for the fall term of 1983, and we would be delighted to have you join us. A spring appearance would be equally appreciated.

Enclosed you will find a brochure which more completely describes the Forum and its history. Programs generally consist of a presentation by our guest followed by an informal question-and-answer session with the audience. Our format is flexible, however, and the choice of topics is yours. We would enjoy hearing whatever you have to say.

In addition to providing travel expenses and accommodations, the Forum hosts a dinner in honor of the evening's guest before the program and a reception afterwards. Forum By-Laws, however, prohibit the paying of honoraria.

We sincerely hope you will accept our invitation to visit Harvard Law School as a guest of the Forum, and we would appreciate hearing from you at your earliest convenience. If your answer is "yes" or "maybe," please send a telephone number at which we can reach you. All correspondence should be sent to the address indicated below.

Thank you very much for your consideration.
